Pastor's Column Weeds and Wheat

In today's gospel, Jesus proposes parables about the kingdom of Heaven. He talks about the weeds and the wheat. How the weeds are gathered up and put into bundles and later burned, and the wheat gathered and brought into the barn. The weeds represent those who do evil in the world. Those who choose not to follow Christ and his teachings. Those who are only concerned about themselves and their own wants. Those who have no concern for building the kingdom of God. The wheat are those who want to build the kingdom of God.

Who suffer for Christ on this earth and proclaim Jesus' teachings to the whole world. The wheat is then gathered up and brought into God's barn, which is heaven. This gospel tells us that there will be a judgment at the end of our life. It's hard to believe that there will be an end to our life. It's hard to believe that what we do in our work will come to an end. It's hard to believe that I will die or my family members will die. An old Jewish rabbi once said, "We are all here to get out of here." The earth is not our home. Heaven is our home. It is important that we spend time thinking about our death. We don't have to spend all day thinking about our death, but we do have to think about what our exit plan will be.

Retirement in Heaven

Retirement is not actually not working at all. One just gets to decide what work they want to do and how much they want to do. When one retires, one has to think about how they are going to spend the years ahead of them. We are good about thinking of earthly things. God wants us to think about our retirement in heaven, also. We do not want to go to that place where there is wailing and grinding of teeth. Let us come to the Lord in prayer each day and talk to him from our hearts. Let us come to know the Messiah and his wisdom in the gospels. Let us serve one another in their needs.

Are You Called?

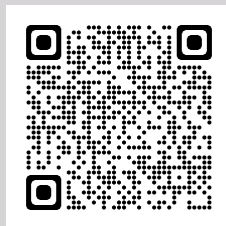

Last week I attended an ordination at Saint John the Baptist Church in Maria Stein, Ohio. Father Greg Evers C.P.P.S. was ordained a priest. I think about the call to the priesthood and how God does call men to work in his vineyard. There is a need for the vocation to the priesthood in our day. Think about how God is calling you to serve him in this life. Father Angelo Anthony C.P.P.S. is now the vocation director of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. He has great insight when it comes to the call to ministry. Ask Jesus what he wants of you. Thank you very much.

Fr. Tony Fortman C.P.P.S.

Fr. Angelo is Giving Thanks!

On Sunday, July 9th we gathered at the Bainbridge Knights of Columbus Hall to give thanks to God for the opportunity He has given us to journey together over the last twelve years as the Downtown Dayton Catholic Parishes. The celebration was an overwhelming testimony of the goodness that is possible when we work together as a people of faith.

I have been blessed over the past twelve years to be your pastor and I take with me many memories of the celebration of the sacraments, parish events and fundraisers and the many meetings that go along with building community. Thank you to everyone who shared words of kindness, greeting cards, gifts, and photos with me. I am grateful to the committee who worked so hard to make this celebration a day of joy. I appreciate all the special touches that added to the festivities, particularly the tasty food, comments from my family and representatives of our parishes, the PowerPoint presentation and all the decorations.

As many of you know, my new ministerial assignment is Director of Vocation Ministry for the U.S. Province of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. I will continue to live at the St. Joseph's rectory and have my office next door at the CPPS Dayton Office. When I am not on the road giving talks encouraging vocations to priesthood and religious life, and walking with men who are discerning a call from God, I will assist Fr. Tony with some of the sacramental needs of the St. Gaspar Family of Parishes. Your prayerful support is greatly appreciated as I begin this new ministry and I promise my prayerful support for all of you! May the Blood of Christ, the fount of life, always be a source of hope and healing for us as we journey in faith along the path of life.

With A Grateful Heart,

Fr. Angelo Anthony, C.P.P.S.

August 8 Special Election

From Archbishop Schnurr: Issue 1 will increase the threshold required for any proposed amendment to the Constitution of Ohio from a simple majority vote to at least a 60% majority vote in order to pass.

Voting Yes

Voting Yes on Issue 1 will make it more difficult to pass any future amendment to the Constitution of Ohio, including this November's ballot initiative seeking an abortion rights constitutional amendment that expands and enshrines abortion at the expense of protections of preborn children and women.

Voting No

Voting No on Issue 1 will maintain the current threshold, making it easier to pass an amendment to Ohio's constitution, including the one coming this November on the abortion expansion amendment.

Early Voting is going on now!
Make plans to vote next week, no need to wait until August 8.

Prayer for Ohio

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Ohio from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. Father, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life, preserving parental rights, and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us!

St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn, pray for us!

From Holy Trinity

We are still in need of Ministers of the Precious Blood and altar servers for the 11:30 am Mass. Interested in being trained? Please call Judi at 937-228-1223.

Harmonizing Hearts

From Emmanuel's Music Office

Composed in the ninth century, the beautiful hymn "Only-Begotten, Word of God Eternal" fittingly expresses our prayer as we Christian pilgrims enter "this dwelling, where the Lord abideth," where we beseech the Lord to "smile on Thy children, and with tender mercy hear our petitions." We sing it to the tune Iste Confessor, whose steady, often stepwise pace suggests our treading over the hills and back down through the valleys of life's journey.

Custodial Position Available

@Holy Trinity

There is a custodial position available at holy trinity. This is a part time position with daily hours, five days a week. For information, please submit a resume to Judi Trick at bus.mgr.holytrinity@gmail or call the parish office. Judi's office hours are 8:00 am to 12:00 pm.
