From the Pastor's Desk

In Matthew's Gospel, we see an example of how important it is to keep your word. We see two sons. One son says that he will go into his father's vineyard and work but doesn't. The other son says he won't go into the vineyard but then does go into the vineyard and works.

The Pharisees promised to do God's will but do not do it. Tax collectors and prostitutes forsake the Lord for their own pleasure but then choose to follow the Lord. Which, in your opinion, did God's will?

God wants our heart. He wants all of us. He does not want a half-hearted servant. I know it's hard to follow Jesus. He demands much from His disciples, but His way is the way of peace. A peace in which the world cannot give. Pharisees time and again saw Jesus perform miracles but were not moved to repentance. Tax collectors and prostitutes saw Jesus' miracles and were moved to repentance. Which, in your opinion, will receive God's peace?

In today's first reading, Ezekiel is called to speak to the lost house of Israel. He has a difficult job and will be met with much resistance. At the beginning of the book of Ezekiel, God promises to protect Ezekiel. Ezekiel will point out the sins of Israel and move some to repentance.

Ezekiel and Jesus say many difficult things to people in the world. They need to speak the truth. You and I need to follow their example. We need to say hard things. We need to spread the Gospel. We need to spread our Catholic faith and not apologize for it. Ezekiel was told not to worry about people's reactions. Just speak to the people.

You and I are called to just speak to the people in the world. Whether they accept us or not doesn't matter. Just speak the truth of your Catholic faith and the Gospel. If not now, when? When will it be the right time to speak the truth of the Gospel or your Catholic faith? Sometimes we hold back too much. When the iron is hot, we need to strike.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tony Fortman C.P.P.S.

 That We, at the St. Gaspar Family of Parishes Stand for Life!

Life Chain is a PEACEFUL...PRAYERFUL...EFFECTIVE...and LEGAL demonstration of love and concern for all the victims of abortion: the babies, the mothers, the fathers, and our entire society. The Life Chain event is held outside the abortion clinic, Women's Med Center at 1701 East Stroop Rd in Kettering. From 2:00-3:30 pm, people stand outside the clinic in prayer, praying for those who have had abortions, who are contemplating abortion, and reflecting on how they can be involved in the pro-life movement.

Register to Vote by October 10

Voter registration deadline is October 10 for the November 7 General Election
 Register to vote or update your voter registration online: <https://olvr.ohiosos.gov/>

Early Voting Begins October 11

Why you should vote early in person at your Board of Elections starting October 11: Like many states, Ohio provides real-time data showing, by name, when each voter has voted. Electoral parties and interest groups can now track this information to focus their get-out-the-vote efforts on their target voters. Pro-life organizations are likewise using this strategy in the campaign against Issue 1. By voting as early as possible, you can help them efficiently direct limited resources (phone calls, mailings, door knocking) to only the remaining pro-life voters.

Changing Your Mind

In today's Gospel reading, Our Lord tells the parable of the two sons whose father asked them to help in the vineyard. The first son told his father he wouldn't help, but then he changed his mind and did what he was asked. The second son said he would help, but he didn't.

In the end it doesn't matter so much if we say we are going to do what's right. What is important is that we do it. We call ourselves Christians because we believe in Jesus and the Church He gave us, but we only really are being Christians if we do what He says.

I SHOULD HAVE DONE MY HOMEWORK... I'LL DO IT NOW.

Sometimes we decide not to obey God. But if we are sorry afterwards and do what is right, God will not look at the bad things we did. On the other hand, if we do good things and then change to doing bad things, then we have decided to turn away from God, and we will be punished for our sins.

@Precious Blood, St. Paul and St. Rita

50th Anniversary Thank You

Many thanks and gratitude to ALL who made St. Paul's 50th Anniversary Mass of Thanksgiving a joyous event! Echoes of "Soli Deo Gloria" still resound in the sanctuary and in our hearts. Our celebration was a beautiful symphony of praise with the gathered assembly and the collaborations of the many varied ministry groups coming together. How blessed we are to have the gift of each other

Have You Ever Wondered Why???

Perhaps you've also been wondering, "Why is our organist leaving at communion time?" Well, there are certain masses in which we are short-handed with organist coverage. After prayerful consideration and discussion with pastoral leadership and the music ministry team, I came to the conclusion that leading a few songs a cappella is less daunting than an entire Mass. However, and gratefully, this demand has opened the doors for some of our musical parishioners to come forward with their gifts and talents. I am so grateful for our music ministry team for their dedication and unwavering support. They truly lead with great love, passion, and humility!

Children's Choir for Christmas

Looking ahead, I am hoping to assemble a children's choir for one of our Christmas liturgies. So please stay tuned for updates in the near future. In the meantime, with God's continued grace and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, I am committed to moving the music ministry program forward in the best way possible.

Soli Deo Gloria~
